

NUCA of Central Florida is proud to present the J. Mitchell Ellington Scholarship 2017 Recipients

Tyler Edwards is the son of Debbie and Scott Edwards. As he graduates from Harmony High School, Tyler has already completed 49 credit hours of college through the dual-enrollment program. Tyler will attend his mother's alma mater, the University of Central Florida where he plans to study Event Management/Marketing. In his spare time, he enjoys golfing and fishing.

NUCA of Central Florida is pleased to also announce the winners of two additional Meritorious Scholarships:

Trey Bolinger, is the son of Janeann Bolinger and Rick Bolinger. Trey graduated from Vero Beach High School having completed 21 college credit hours through dual enrollment. This month he will head to Tallahassee where he will study Business Management/Finance at Florida State University. Trey plans to pursue a career in the construction industry. He enjoys basketball, football and has turned his enjoyment profitable as he works summers at Bent Pine Golf Club.

Noah Chevalier, is the son of Melinda and Greg Chevalier. Noah graduated from Boone High School, and he will attend the University of Central Florida where he will pursue a degree in Forensic Science. Noah plans to work with forensics at a local police department, with an ultimate goal of working for the FBI. Noah is part of the Criminal Justice Magnet Program at Boone High, and he earned varsity letters in both football and baseball, and also participated in several clubs and activities at school including the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

We wish Tyler, Trey & Noah much success and a bright future!
